Are you feeling frustrated, depressed or apathetic?

Does it feel like you are swimming against the current?

Does it feel like life is a constant struggle?

Maybe you have just stepped off your life's path . . . .

We believe that every person is born with a purpose. Our soul chose a life path to walk before we were born, but we may not have a conscious memory of what it was. For each person, it is a unique path, one that no one except that person is meant to walk, and one which no one except that person can understand.

When we are off the path, life becomes more difficult. The more we try to force ourselves to walk a path that isn't ours, the more difficult life becomes and the more depressed we feel. And sometimes we get stuck.

When we are on the path, life feels joyful and it flows. To find the path again, you need to look into your soul and authentically listen to it. The horses of Silver Willow Farm want to help you hear your soul's message.

In this intensive 2 day workshop, you will be given an opportunity to reconnect to your subconscious. Through a variety of exercises, you will explore what feels right in your life and what needs to change.

Let the horses of Silver Willow Farm help you rediscover your soul's journey!
